ABOUT

Her words to your eyes and ears.
To your soul. They flow effortlessly to serve the pleasure your ears will treasure, while your mind stretches on measure. Whether Lauren's stimulating you into action by day or your mind by night is all up to you. Some call her 'Proper' — a perfect depiction of where her words will take you. On a proper path, to higher heights, a place where you find yourself and meet her there welcoming you.

WHY I WRITE

Fear demanded from my voice Gives me no other choice
To reach those constantly in hiding Seeking to learn about fighting
I create scribes
To convey with vibes

Touching a learning heart Believing we were worlds apart
My passion is an action Moving in constant fashion Dutiful to writing decrees Righting people from knees

I must document my flavor
So eyes may savor
What the rest of the senses
Must first test for defenses

I write
Cuz I like to see
All the thoughts
Inside of me
